

Agriculture Crossword

Use a variety of resources to research the clues below and complete the crossword.

Across:

1. This activity could be called a scientific discovery, which has made crops grow better.
2. This is one of the most common animals you will find in rural areas.
3. This aspect of our climate can have a negative effect on agriculture, by reducing the amount of water available.
4. Name one thing that all living things need.
5. This is an important product that people use in cakes or may fry or boil to eat on their own.
6. This is another name for energy from the sun.
7. Farming is also referred to as this.

Down:

1. This is one of the things that agriculture provides for people.
2. This can happen to the land and soil if people remove too many trees.
3. Aboriginal people gave this name to food they gathered from the environment.
4. This tiny creature helps improve soil quality.
5. This thing is a renewable resource that provides timber to build fences on farms.
6. This substance is sometimes used to treat wild dogs and other feral animals.
7. If a biosecurity threat occurs we try to _____ it.